VICTORIA HOUSE MANCHESTER

LOCATION

Victoria House neighbours the Ancoats area. Previously, a gritty textile district, today it is the most happening place in Manchester.

As the birthplace of the industrial revolution, Manchester is known around the world for its achievements in science, politics, music, arts and sport. Visitors and locals alike can visit this city's football stadiums, museums, galleries and music venues all of which continue to celebrate and reinvigorate Manchester's momentous reputation.

The more recent addition of modern café culture and an eclectic collection of restaurants, pubs and bars have added a cosmopolitan feel to this historic city.

With pedestrian-friendly streets that are lined with cool independent shops and an amazing food and drink scene it is no surprise that Ancoats has become well-loved in recent years. Positioned close by, residents of Victoria House have enviably easy access to this vibrant area of the city.

THE CITY THAT HAS GOT IT ALL

Manchester embraces diversity with a population of 2.82 million. Forward-thinking innovation, a thriving culture and trend-setting lifestyle, it's a city that has so much to offer.

Manchester offers the best of everything, from high-end fashion brands to quirky independents, so it's easy to see why visitors travel from all over the world to shop in Manchester.

Boasting a bohemian vibe during the day, the Northern Quarter then transforms at night with people in search of good food, craft beer and live music.

Host to the city's financial centre with great places to eat, drink and shop, Spinningfield's captures over 42 million annual visitors due to an ideal location at the core of Manchester's city centre.

Manchester Arndale has the highest footfall of any city centre shopping arcade. New Cathedral Street is packed with style and home to some of the world's most premium shopping experiences including Selfridges & Co, Harvey Nichols and Burberry.

Scoring higher than London, Lisbon, Prague and Moscow, Manchester is ranked 43rd in the 2021 Economist Intelligence Unit's 'World's Most Liveable Cities'.

With a thriving food and drink culture, Manchester is now established as one of the UK's most exciting food destinations. There are new restaurants, bars, gastropubs, and cafés opening on a weekly basis.

Manchester is packed with options and every cuisine you can think of. You can fine dine or have afternoon tea, but there are always pop-up markets dotted around the city and humble street food.

VICTORIA HOUSE MANCHESTER

A MODERN RENAISSANCE

Looking to cultivate a strong sense of identity the neighbouring cities of Manchester and Salford put a strong emphasis on local arts and culture, innovation, business and leisure which has been coupled with huge government investment.

Home to the famous Lowry Theatre, one of the most visited tourist destinations in the North West, the Imperial War Museum and the Salford Museum & Art Gallery, there is no question that Salford is also defining itself as a truly unique and independent city.

The £550 million pound investment in MediaCityUK has created a unique waterfront destination for leisure, innovation and digital media – home to the BBC and ITV among others.

The largest purpose-built telecommunications and media hub in Europe, MediaCityUK is on the rise as big businesses look to relocate and premium establishments aim to be represented in the area.

To cope with the growing numbers of people wishing to work and live in Manchester and Salford there are significant plans in place to develop the local infrastructure and encourage economic growth. Consequently, house prices and rental yields are on the rise, making Greater Manchester one of the UK's premier destinations for investors.
